Everything about the Jews and how to recognize them

Introduction and disclaimer:

This book is not intended for those who can't think for themselves or reckless people, it is intended for smart people who can gather their own information, draw their own conclusions, are dedicated to find out the truth, and already know something about what is going on in this world.

The purpose of this book is not to convince a mass number of people, even if it did, it's purpose is to provide you with information that should help you in some way, As a result throughout this book I won't provide any evidence for most things, and not every statement in this book is guaranteed to be 100% accurate, It's your job to confirm how accurate it is, Though you can be assured I have done my research very carefully and the information in this book has at least a great deal of accuracy.

Throughout this book There are images of real world people and celebrities, these pictures might not accurately represent how they truly look like in the real world, they are used to provide examples for certain physical traits, and all of these pictures were obtained from the internet and are/were publicly available.

I have never been a member of any secret society or organization, I never worked for any government or group of any kind, Everything I know was the result of personal research both online and offline, direct and indirect, Though through observation, analysis, experience, and experiments I learned a bit about how secret societies operate.

Glossary:

Homosexuals: People who experience sexual, physical, and/or romantic attraction towards members of the same sex more or less, even if they also experience or pretend to experience attraction towards the opposite sex (Inclusive term).

Bisexuals: People who experience sexual, physical, and/or romantic attraction towards both sexes.

Heterosexuals: People who exclusively experience sexual, physical, romantic attraction towards members of the opposite sex.

Operatives, Agents, or Insiders: People who work for a secret society or government and follow the orders of that group, regardless of whether or not they are full members or know that much about the organization.

Agent Bots: Members of a secret society or government who are deceived and manipulated, don't know that much, and don't completely share the real goal of the organization, and are mainly just following orders.

Bots or Parrots: pack-minded people who are not members of a secret society, but they act just like bots in a video a game, they lack critical thinking skills and self awareness, their opinions and way of life are imitations of their virtual authority including any contradictions.

Vessels: People who have a high percentage match to the DNA of a particular race or species but lack the adequate character and/or intelligence necessary to fully qualify for membership of that race or species, and they always fall under the category of bots.

Virtual Authority: Anyone or any group someone chooses to follow and believe, consider an authority and refuse to question or doubt.

Islamists: Devout Muslims or self-proclaimed Muslims who support enforcing Islamic sharia law and/or spreading Islam around the world through direct acts of violence and terrorism, immigration, or indirect warfare.

Eugenics: The practice of improving the quality of the next generation by mating people who have desirable qualities (e.g. Health, Intelligence, Good personality traits, Strength, Agility, Good looks) with each other to increase the chances or even guarantee passing on these desirable traits to their children.

Baited Marriage: The act of marrying someone else for the purpose of harming them (e.g. Killing them and getting away with it, Framing them for a crime they didn't commit, Taking their money and assets by the power of law, etc.), typically done by females today due to how the laws around the world are written and who enforces them, in a baited marriage there are usually no more than 1 or 2 children or even none at all, the children are mainly born to take the so-called child support money and assets from the spouse but also for seeding and population replacement purposes.

Poisoned Marriage: When someone with genetic diseases or deformations knowingly tries to get married to a healthy individual, to waste people's DNA until they are too old to pass on quality DNA to the next generation, or worse yet, infecting them.

Identity of the Jews And Their goal:

The Jews are a race from the middle east, they are made of Armenoids, Orientalids, a certain race of ape humanoids, their racial relatives, and deformed or defective people.

The Jews are believed to originate from the Armenoid race.

The Jews were born out of racial mixing and defects in the unrecorded history of the world, before the invention of Jewish religions such as Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

Throughout this book I will refer to the Jews as Armenoids interchangeably.

The goal of the Armenoid race is end of life on earth as written in their Abrahamic religions, The proofs are their Jewish religions and other religions that openly worship death and extinction, commonly poor health of the Jewish race, and their genetic diseases and defects, Their Homosexuality, Their evil nature and despicable behaviors, Their common suicidal tendencies such as reckless driving, consuming alcohol, smoking, and doing drugs, Their hatred of the human race especially Europeans who are a lot less like apes, Their insane support for animals and pets especially the mostly useless animals such as cats and dogs while declaring war on necessary and productive animals like cattle and chicken, Their support for retards and other deformed individuals and people who are unworthy of life, Their propaganda in movies and video games like destroy all humans or war for the planet of the apes, etc.

Why haven't the Jews used the nuclear weapons around the world to end life on earth? I'm not sure, but most likely they are not sure every single one of them is fully dedicated to death and are expecting treason, or they are using too many bots and agent bots and can't easily do whatever they want, and it's possible that the nukes on earth today aren't sufficient to guarantee end of all life everywhere.

After all, survival instincts are part of the human and humanoid body, so even death worshipers like the Jews could suddenly and temporarily change their minds when it gets too serious and death seems imminent.

When Jews act like they are scared of death, it's more like they are scared of not being able to spread death even more than they already have, scared of not being able to ensure end of life on earth as written in their cults (Judaism, Christianity, Islam, etc.).

Race, genetics, and sexuality of the Jews:

As I mentioned earlier the Jewish race is primarily made of Armenoids, Orientalids, a certain race of ape humanoids, their racial relatives, and deformed or defective people.

I would categorize the Jews into 3 main categories, and 2 main types, the categories will focus on physical traits that everyone can see, while the types will focus on their internal biology and flesh.

Examples of those physical traits are provided below in the faces and examples section.

The main 3 categories of the Jews are:

1-The Armenoid race:

The smartest Jews on average, I would put inside this category Armenoid people who looks less like an ape.

The unique marks of the Armenoid race are: curved nose, receding forehead and temples that starts receding almost immediately often with a sharp angle, noticeable hump in the top portion of the nose, curved nose, very long narrow face, and a receding chin which usually gives the appearance of protrusion of the face at the nose area.

Other marks of Armenoids include: receding forehead, weak chin that doesn't jut out, coarse curly or wavy hair, thick skin , curved eyebrows, high or higher eyebrows, larger eye sockets.

2-The apes:

The main source of genetic defects and diseases on earth, and probably the source of the Armenoid race and the rest of the Jewish race.

The marks of the ape Jews are the protruding jaws, big lips, slanted forehead, short head, big fleshy nose, low bridged nose, weak chin, Endomorph body type, long torso, short limbs especially the legs, excessive body hair, prominent lower lip (the lower lip is larger than the upper lip), bushy eyebrows, coarse curly or wavy hair, thick skin, larger eye sockets.

While the unique marks are: wide mouth, broad face, protruding ears, low set ears, Prognathism (maxillary and mandibular), a pinched face, very bushy eyebrows, very prominent lower lip, .

The less mixed ape Jews are also shorter than average (but not too short those would be in the deformed category), have a tendency to gain weight easily and much harder time losing that extra weight, as a result being fat or obese is most common among ape Jews and the deformed.

Ape Jews often have some kind of a genetic deformation that causes some kind of enlargement in their bodies, I'm not sure what it is or how to describe it, but it's one of the main sources of diseases, poor health, and obesity and it usually makes those Jews very aggressive (The type of people always looking for a fight) except when they are made of defective flesh.

Race, genetics, and sexuality of the Jews:

3-The deformed:

All Jews are deformed, but this category is exceptionally deformed.

The deformed freaks can possess a wide range of features, the easiest way to summarize them is that their features are out of proportion or look abnormal.

Some of their features include: being short or very short, wiener face, sleepy eyes, pop eyes, sad eyes, Asiatic eyes, uni-brow, unusually high forehead.

Note: the presence of any more than 1 or 2 exclusively Jewish facial features is almost always a good sign that someone is a member of the Jewish cult, but even just 1 or 2 exclusively Jewish facial features are usually enough to make someone a Jew, even if they are not members of the cult.

Some of Armenoid racial relatives:

1-Orientalid

2-Alpinid

The main types of the Jews are:

1-Ape flesh:

Those with more ape flesh have thicker skin, Endomorph or Mesomorph body type, shorter lifespan and poor health, gain extra weight easily, likely to have problems with their liver in older age, very likely to have Hyper-coagulation more or less in older age, much more likely to be high on cholesterol, blood flow issues are common.

Ape flesh in Jews is often coupled with nasty deformations.

2-Defective flesh:

In extreme cases, They are carriers and hosts to many genetic defects and deformations, most notably a genetic deformation known as down syndrome.

They usually have below average body temperature, blood flow issues even when they are very active physically, irregular heat emissions or seemingly cold emissions even when they are physically active, in their best shape, and maybe even when they are angry.

Despite these facts, some of them, particularly those with who have less Armenoid blood and are less defective live long lives, though they typically have health issues for decades before their death and most of them or even all of them only manage to live long thanks to modern science and healthcare.

Race, genetics, and sexuality of the Jews:

When those with defective flesh are white skinned, they would often have yellowish skin or unhealthy skin.

Everyone with defective flesh will have at least a certain degree of resemblance to the DNA of people with down syndrome and autism.

Main causes of defective flesh are the Jewish race, genetic and racial incompatibility between parents, Lack of sperm or egg quality in the parents, having a parent or more who is defective or deformed or has a chronic or a genetic disease, having a parent or more who is Mongoloid or part Mongoloid or has a yellowish skin tone, or having a parent or both parents who gave that birth in older age (which increases the risk of inheriting the worst parts of their DNA or the inherited good bits of their DNA being damaged).

Sexuality:

All members of the Jewish race are homosexual more or less, regardless of their claims or silly pretenses, many of them (probably most) are bisexual, while many others are strictly homosexual, both have historically been getting married to the opposite sex and had children to achieve an obvious goal, after all homosexuals are a disease, a genetic virus, incarnation of death which the Jews worship, and it's spread will eventually wipe out life on earth.

Homosexuality is also unsurprisingly a core part of Abrahamic religions which they invented, with Islam possessing the most of these homosexual elements and teachings till today, including but not limited to strict separation of both sexes, the hijab or headscarf for females, the disrespect for women and girls in general especially their bodies and their rights as human beings, and much more.

Many Jews like wrapping their arms around necks, shoulders, and waists of members of the same sex, hugging members of the same sex, touching everyone everywhere all the time like Jew Biden (Pun intended), kissing members of the same sex on the cheeks are quite common among the Jews, especially in parts of the world where such disgusting homosexual behaviors are considered normal and not homosexual ironically such as the Middle East and apparently also Africa, Asia in general, southern and eastern Europe.

Most Jews who come from Europe to these parts of the world initially continue their pretenses of disgust over these sightings, but eventually they feel safe to copy the local populations.

Obviously, weather or not someone is homosexual or heterosexual is determined since birth, not up to your personal opinions or declarations, and is impossible to change. those who claim otherwise are obviously homosexual.

I also believe that homosexuality is a racial problem, which was born from mixing between ape DNA and much lower amounts of ape DNA.

Facial/Cranial Features of Ashkenazim Jews from the book "What is a Jew" from "Julius Streicher's (Der Stürmer)"

[Note that not all Jews have the physical features listed below]

1. A) Ashkenazim Jews have a long, large nose — one that differs from Italian-type noses by the fact that it often curves downward at the tip; the nose often has a noticeable "hump" on the top portion of it, if viewed in profile; the nose often resembles the number "6," if viewed with the grooves of the "wings" of the nose, in profile [2]. Further, some gentiles have commented that Jews often have a facial appearance that seems "pinched,".
2. B) The forehead and temples of the skull recede quickly. In other words, the forehead and temples begin to slope or curve almost immediately, whereas in Whites those areas are more "wall-like" and vertical. Studies of Jewish skull shapes show that most Jews are either a) not Semitic; or b) only partly Semitic. Instead, they are Armenid/Hittite in their skull shapes [3]. This means that the term "anti-Semitism" does not really apply to Jews [also 3]. Further, many Ashkenazim Jews have short heads, as compared to Europeans.
3. C) The ears of Ashkenazim Jews are usually larger than a gentile's, especially the upper ear, and the ears often stick out, away from the head; this, combined with their large noses, often gives Jews a "rat-like" or "rodent-like" appearance. This "rodent-like" appearance is more noticeable when they smile.
4. D) Mouth opening/lips often larger than normal.
5. E) The eyes are sometimes slightly Asian in appearance, i.e. slightly more "squinted" than a European's. This is more noticeable when they smile, squeezing their eyes shut even more than a gentile's. Eyelids, especially the lower ones, are more puffed-out and "fleshy" than a European's.
6. F) Jews usually have a "weak chin" that does not jut out.
7. G) Jews usually have legs and arms that are, proportionately speaking, rather short.
8. H) Their head hair is usually curlier, and darker, than a gentiles;

Some of the genetic diseases of the Jews (From the book "How to recognize and identify a Jew"):

Jewish diseases are endless. The average Jew is severely afflicted in one or more ways.

Quite a few of the genetic diseases listed below are exclusively Jewish, such as 'Tay Sachs.' If you have any doubts, do some research on 'Jewish diseases' on the internet. Fools, who believe the Jewish lie that the Jews are a religion, need to do a bit of research right from Jewish sources about the diseases listed below.

'Religions' do not transmit genetic diseases, obviously.

Some Common Psychological Traits Of Jews

- Jews often really like to gape (opening up their mouths, usually widely), as you can see with many YouTubers and celebrities, it always looks very weird, you will definitely get what I mean.
- Jews often talk with their hands, moving their hands a bit too frequently while they talk.
- Many Jews are obsessed with idea of ruling the world with or without a reason or a plan.
- Jews often think they are superior to non-Jews.
- Jews often have a variety of mental and emotional disorders usually present since birth.
- Jews complain about life hardships more than non-Jews.
- Jews are more suspicious of others and paranoid than non-Jews.
- Jews are often obsessed with feces and urine, and their favorite so called humor often involves feces or urine and other disgusting topics, and their speech typically involves words related to these things.
- Jews often like to associate bad things like being rude and obnoxious or being a coward with sexual organs of men and women, which demonstrates their anti-human nature.
- Jews are typically disloyal and treacherous especially towards non-Jewish persons and groups.
- Jews are always immoral, even when they pretend to be moral in some or many situations.
- Jews are often pathological liars, they love to lie even when there is no reason to do so, even when finding out the truth is really easy, and even when the other side knows the truth and they know it.
- Many Jews are obsessed with money and finance, and very materialistic in nature, even when they were always far from being poor.
- Many Jews especially male Jews are obsessed with fast cars and reckless driving.
- Jews are often suicidal, they love to do drugs, get drunk, smoke, drive recklessly, and to do any other act that would endanger their lives.
- Jews are quick to follow all sorts of modern behaviors advocated for by the media, regardless of how bad they are, such as piercings, tattos, etc.
- Jews seem to Have an inborn dislike for anything European or white.
- Jews are prone to do racial mixing, especially wild racial mixing such as Negroid Jews with Nordic-ish Jews, I believe this is more about their goals and orders they have from their Jewish cult than it's about their own desires.
- Most Jews have an inborn desire to hurt others in any way possible to different degrees, they take delight in doing so, since the moment they are born.
- Jews tend to confuse racial traits for differences between sexes, particularly Humanoid ape traits for masculinity such as thick long beards.
- Many Jews have a harder time telling the difference between concealed males and females.
- Many Jews are a bit touchy-feely.
- Jews love to conquer from within, They infiltrate groups and destroy them from the inside, all races, countries, and almost all groups, organizations and families in the world today have been successfully infiltrated or even taken over by the Jews, they also like to take the initiative over their enemies, many organizations and groups that seem to be against the Jews or their goals were built the Jews themselves like the so-called Vladimir Lenin quote (The best way to control the opposition is to lead it ourselves).
- All Jews are Homosexual by nature to different degrees and many of them are a bit touchy-feely, behaviors such wrapping their arms around necks, shoulders, and waists of members of the same sex, hugging members of the same sex, touching everyone everywhere all the time like Jew Biden (Pun intended), kissing members of the same sex on the cheeks are quite common among the Jews, especially in parts of the world where such disgusting homosexual behaviors are considered normal and not homosexual ironically such as the Middle East and apparently also Africa, Asia in general, southern and eastern Europe.
Most Jews who come from Europe to these parts of the world initially continue their pretenses of disgust over these sightings, but eventually they feel safe to copy the local population.

How to recognize a Jew:

When Trying to identify a Jew it's important to put together as many different factors as possible (appearance, genetic traits, health, character, background, names, family names) especially if you aren't an expert at detecting them.

Many Jews have none of the exclusive Jewish facial features mentioned in this book, but are just as despicable as the rest of their kind, while some other Jews have a bit of resemblance to Europeans with no clear presence of Jewish facial features, and many of the non-exclusive Jewish facial features originally belong to non-Jews from other races.

Mental traits are usually not as reliable as physical traits when identifying a Jew.

Many people who may be considered non-Jews by an anthropologist, have known or unknown Jewish background, they may be bots rather than members of the Jewish cult, They might even be vessels for the Germanic race for example, they might even have high value DNA (Great longevity, health, appearance, with only a modest IQ and a partly good character (due to being bots of partly Jewish descent)).

Most of the time Jews can be identified by appearance alone, and many Jews are blatantly Jewish by appearance, some of them might have nothing more than the colors of the race whose DNA they stole (such as blue, green, or hazel eyes, blonde, orange, or brown hair, white, or black skin), making them pretty obvious if you aren't easily blinded by colors.

The presence of any more than 1 or 2 exclusively Jewish facial features is almost always a good sign that someone is a member of the Jewish cult, but even just 1 or 2 exclusively Jewish facial features are usually enough to make someone a Jew, even if they are not members of the cult.

Personally I consider anyone who isn't a pure breed Germanic to be a possible suspect until I have more information.

The Jewish Cults and Hashashin:

The Jews have created a huge variety of cults, secret societies, religions, and governments throughout history, but their most notable religions are Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, and their most notable secret society is Hashashin (Commonly known as the assassins in Europe and the west) and its branches.

The name Hashashin was given to that cult based on what was known about them in the middle east about 1000 years ago, the name is literally translated from Arabic to "the weed smokers", which associates the cult with the use of cannabis, and unsurprisingly the leftists (members of Hashashin) are so persistent about legalizing weed in particular at the moment, though they definitely intend to go further like when they started with cigarettes, tobacco products, wine, and alcoholic drinks.

Hashashin secret society includes the Templars and a number of others, the Templars were just their branch, Ayyubid dynasty were also part of Hashashin cult as one of the factions as mentioned by an online disclosure by one of their members.

Hashashin are the elite branch of The Jewish cult, they are the main leaders of this world today, almost all of the major scientific advancements over the past ~200 years were made by members of Hashashin, including nuclear weapons and the discovery of nuclear fission and fusion, inside Hashashin cult at the top you will find the secret behind all of this sudden and rapid scientific development.

Members of Hashashin cult are particularly hateful of Europe, the west, and European people, since all members of Hashashin are Jews, but members of Hashashin cult tend to be a lot more aggressive and hateful of European and white people in general including their fellow Jews who possess any amount of that blood.

First they took down the redheads and created the current situation of redheads being nearly extinct through the Templars branch, and are now targeting all Europeans, white people, and even the rest of the world to a lesser degree.

The goal of Hashashin is extinction of life on earth.

Side note: The media in the likes of China, Russia, North Korea, and the rest of the world today has a tendency to repeat blatant lies that everyone knows is a lie, they expect their populations to be delusional retards, they do so with the assistance of agents posing as bots and normal citizens among the population's relatives, friends, colleagues, etc. and relying mainly on Jewish blood.

The Jewish Cults and Hashashin:

Hashashin cult is characterized by the following propaganda:

- Racism and propaganda against white people and Europeans.
- Reversed Eugenics through mixing of very different races and other degenerative behaviors.
- Accepting retards, other genetic defects or deformations, protecting their existence, and promoting so-called politically correct terms to refer to those zombies.
- Homosexuality, accepting it, making it legal, protecting homosexuals, giving them power, and promoting stupid and insulting pro-homosexual terms such as homophobic (originates from phobia, which means extreme and irrational fear).
- Injustice and poor treatment towards males and females socially and legally (Today feminism is their favorite).
- Creating division between males and females using a variety of strategies.
- Putting radically different races and people in one place through open immigration which was first done in the united states by importing Negroids and is now being done to Europe as well.
- Importing Negroids anywhere outside of their homes in Africa, protecting them, then trying to rile them up with lies against the indigenous people to create a civil war (started in the United States).
- Accepting all kinds of Muslims (especially Islamists) and spreading them around the world.
- Supporting and protecting the Jews and Israel and portraying the Jews (who are natural born criminals and freaks) as victims and heroes.
- Drugs, weed, tobacco products, and alcohol, spreading their use, producing, selling, using, and legalizing them.
- Reckless driving and removing speed limits.
- Apocalypse and end of life on earth and anything that makes it easier and faster (like in Abrahamic religions).
- Pork, stinky fish, stinky cheese, and other dirty meats (Obviously not chicken, beef, and some types of fish).
- Pets, animal obsessed culture, and so-called animal rights especially the mostly useless animals like cats and dogs.
- Vegetarianism and veganism.

Bots, parrots, agent bots, agents, and how to distinguish between them:

I use the terms bots and parrots interchangeably, but I tend to use the term parrots when bots are repeating someone else's views without thought no matter how dumb it is.

Bots and parrots are people who are not members of a secret society who almost always repeat opinions and views of other people without thought, even if they claim otherwise, and no matter how dumb or even sick these opinions are they don't question them.

They are basically pack minded people like apes, they lack the ability or willingness to think for themselves.

As a result bots are never very smart, but they are still usually smart enough to do their jobs, and could even take on jobs such as scientists, programmers, and other more intellectual jobs, and may not be that bad at what they do either, they are just never very good at anything.

Their main intellectual weaknesses are: lack of critical thinking and self-awareness, inability to think outside the box, illogical and subjective reasoning, not taking all facts into account, making too many baseless assumptions, repeating things they don't even understand, unable to develop their own personal opinions based on research and analysis, often unable to consider different possibilities, unable to question authority, and generally lack character.

Not all bots are the same though, some bots are smarter than others, and some are more likely to disagree with their virtual authority.

Furthermore the genetic nature of those bots make a huge difference, bots from the Jewish race for example could be just like any other Jew and just as bad, while a bot from another race could be very different.

As a rule, the belief in any religion, particularly Abrahamic religions, requires being a bot, and all bots have to possess a certain amount of Jewish DNA or ape DNA (usually both), more or less, that's how religions and governments were formed and spread in the first place.

Note: Both bots and parrots. even the dumbest of them have a red line, that red line can be summarized as self-harm, for example you will never see a white skinned person who is not a Jew being a leftist who supports rules, decisions or propaganda that give favorable treatment for other people or treat him and other white people as enemies or cause any kind of threats to him or her.

And you will never see a real man, not a homosexual, or deformed, being an anti-male feminist.

Agents are people who work for a secret society, they follow the orders of that secret society and share its goal, many agents repeat the views of their leaders and pretend to be bots, basically role-playing.

Other agents are in positions of authority, either in governments, or in other institutions such as big businesses or online monopolies.

While other agents are on the field as warriors, doing acts of violence, dealing with drugs, committing various real crimes, engaging in or attempting baited marriages and abuse of laws that are made to be abused, gathering information, or doing other field operations.

Those typically have the highest amount of Jewish blood.

Agent Bots are members of a secret society who are not fully part of their organization, they are members who don't know that much and don't completely share the true goal of the organization, and are mainly following orders.

Jewish DNA concentration is typically higher in these ones.

Hashashin Cult And Drugs:

Hashashin cult mainly use a drugs as one of their tools to achieve human extinction, their operations to spread the use of these drugs primarily relies on DNA, particularly, Jewish DNA which is the main source, followed by ape DNA because they are more likely to lack self control and submit to their genetic desires to do drugs (including tobacco and weed) or get drunk.

That's mainly done through what I call seeding, AKA breeding, both by those already do drugs, smoke, or drink alcohol and by those who want to do it but never have.

They also try to give those people the drugs, weed, cigarettes, or alcohol that they want, and make it easy to access, and by legalizing it like with the leftists, it becomes even easier, which makes those people more likely to listen to their genetic desires and do drugs or drink alcohol, which would damage their DNA and assist with the spread of defects, and people with bad health (A male or a female who smokes before sexual intercourse do damage their DNA which is likely to affect their offspring, and drinking alcohol in any amount while being pregnant is known to cause problems too).

Normally people never smoke unless they have an inborn desire to smoke, which originates from liking the smell of cigarettes and tobacco, and their desire is not caused by exposure to smokers or advertisements (including movies) for smoking, but caused by their DNA, they would often express that they like the smell of cigarettes even as kids, some of them would eventually end up becoming smokers and submit to their desires despite knowing that it will kill them in advance, while others are better at controlling their desires and will live and die without ever smoking a cigarettes regardless of exposure.

Those who become smokers can be called strong seeds, as they are much more likely to pass on their genetic defect that makes them like the smell of cigarettes, and even if they didn't pass on that defect, their smoking habits will damage their DNA and are likely to cause damage to their children's bodies, such as causing natural lung or heart issues in their children, not necessarily to the point of being considered asthma or a health condition, just enough that they can never do extensive cardiovascular exercise or sports no matter how hard they try.

While those who carry the smoking defect but manage to control their desire to smoke can be called weak seeds, as they don't damage their DNA and are less likely to pass on their genetic defect that makes them want to smoke, and it's quite possible also that they don't love the smell that much.

From my observation, female smoking in particular seems more exclusive to the Jews, females have a much lower chance of inheriting the genetic defect that makes them like the smell of cigarettes, and even in families that have been infiltrated by the Jewish DNA, only the more Armenoid females seem to inherit that genetic defect, and not all of them inherit it either, and even if they inherited it they are less likely to ever become smokers.

In general you can assume that smoking requires the presence of a certain amount of Jewish blood, while ape DNA decreases people's ability to control their desires even while knowing it's harmful.

Whistle-blowers from Hashashin Cult:

I found online a few but questionable whistle-blowers from Hashashin cult, one on <https://www.abovetopsecret.com/forum/thread221950/pg2> <https://www.abovetopsecret.com/forum/mem/devzilla> and another on Fandom, the information on abovetopsecret is still there as of writing this (which surprises me), but the other on Fandom has already been deleted (because it's one of their own major websites), but one of it's pages is (or maybe was) archived on the wayback machine, you can find it by searching for this link:

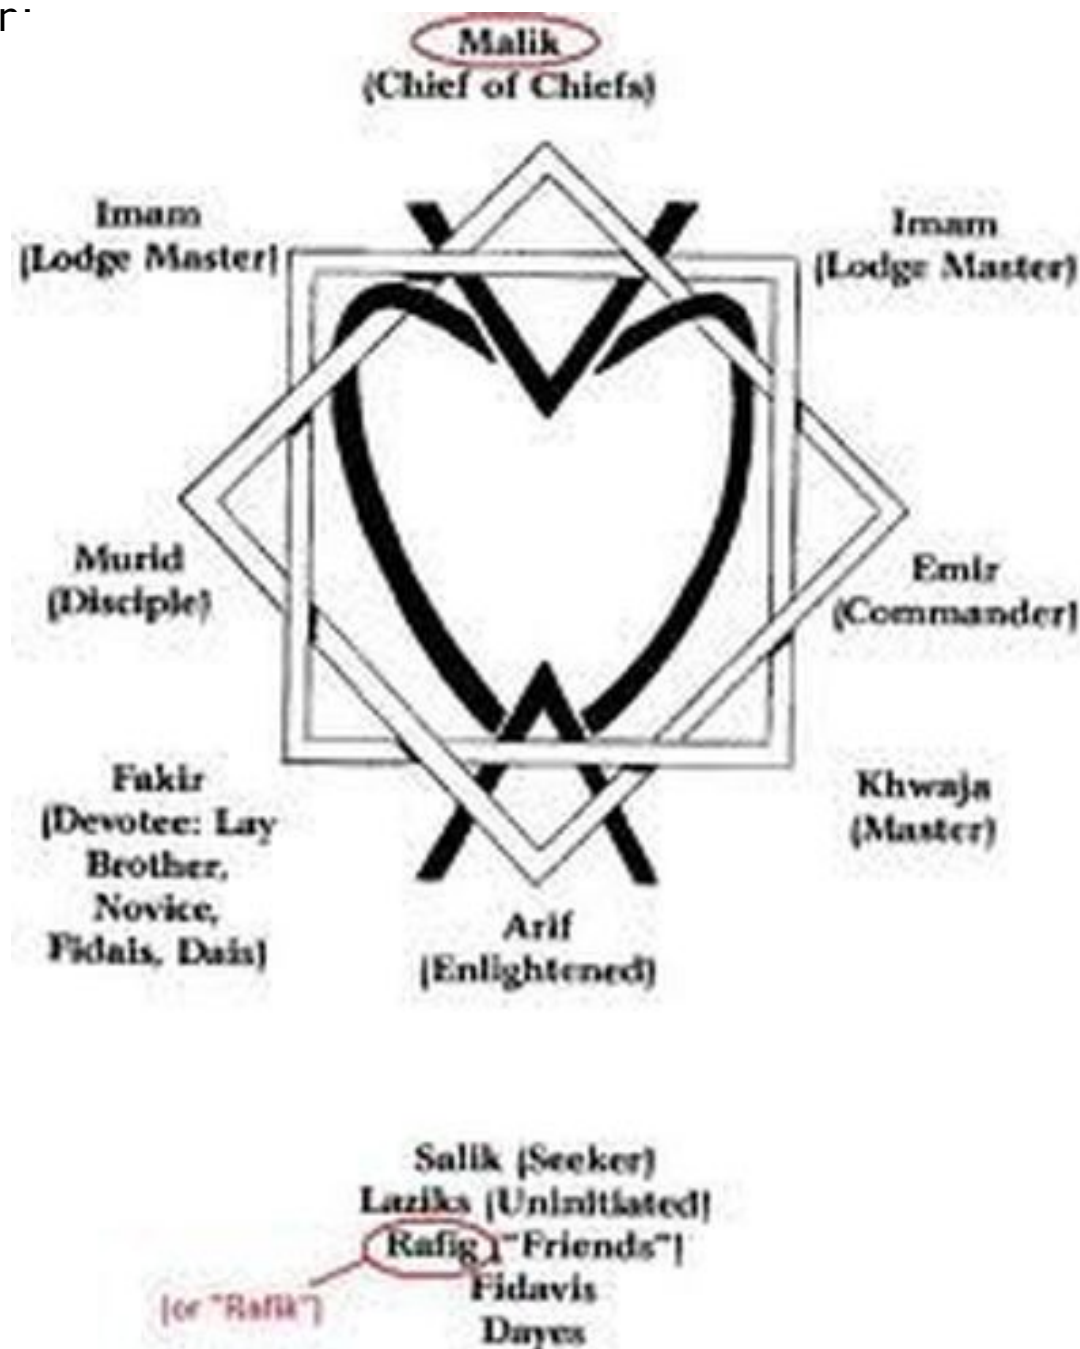

<https://hashashin.wikia.org/wiki/Hashashin>

Or maybe you can still find it here:

<http://web.archive.org/web/20201222170723/https://hashashin.wikia.org/wiki/Hashashin>

The whistle-blower on Fandom categorized Hashashin into 3 groups he called factions: Hashashin, Templars, and Ayyubid.

Both whistle-blowers agreed on the titles in Hashashin cult, the whistle-blower on abovetopsecret disclosed the following logo of Hashashir:

Whistle-blowers from Hashashin Cult:

Which includes eight titles distributed across 8 points of the star shape: Malik, Imam (left), Imam (right), Murid, Emir, Fakir, Khwaja, and Arif.

And Extra titles outside the eight pointed start shape, which implies that they are outers, or not full members of the cult: Salik, Laziks, Rafik (or Rafiq), Fida'is, and Dayes.

Some of these titles were in the disclosure by the whistle-blower on Fandom, and you can easily confirm these titles yourself by investigating them, because most of them are also used as first and last names in the middle east and are Arabic words, and some of them are pretty famous and posses great influence, like Arafa or Arfa last name (Sounds a lot like Arif and has the same meaning in Arabic), and the famous Jewish Egyptian actor Adel Emam (Same as Imam) (Emam is also one of their last names).

However, members of Hashashin are not limited to this logo or it's titles, they have branches all over the world, and the Templars, Which is their branch in Europe, started operating in Europe around the same time "Hashashin" label was given to that group in the middle east.

The whistle-blower on Fandom wrote an article about Hashashin cult which included some of the titles above as mentioned earlier, and included that article Hashashin in a category he called factions, those factions included the Templars, and Ayyubid, alongside Hashashin, which confirms my conclusion.

There is more than enough evidence that Hashashin weren't destroyed by the Mongols, it was either fake or scapegoats, In fact I would say Hashashin were already in control of the Mongols back then.

Given the use of titles of Hashashin as last names in the middle east, I would not be surprised if Hashashin branch in Europe and the west followed a similar pattern and used common Jewish last names like -Berg, -Man (or the German version Mann)(I assume not all Man or Mann last names though), -Stone (or the German version Stein), Silver, Gold on the eight pointed star shape.

After doing further research on the titles, the meaning of Arif in Arabic means someone who knows, as an inner title they have to know a lot about the cult and it's goals or even everything, so by using this title, it implies that they know even more than the rest of members, which might explain the triangle pointing at Malik (Chief of chiefs), and Arif, distinguishing them from the rest of members.

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- Crow
- Owl
- The number 69:

Very commonly and conspicuously used symbol, I suspect it has something to do with homosexuality, but not entirely sure of it's meaning, it is possible but very unlikely that someone who isn't a member of Hashashin would use this symbol in their nickname, could be just random numbers to create a unique nickname online.

- Piercings in general
- Earrings on males (Yet another well known homosexuality mark).
- Tattoos in general
- The butterfly symbol
- The Anchor Symbol:

Not an exclusive symbol, Those in the business of fishing, sailing, or selling sea foods and those who love the sea could easily use it to refer to their line of work or their hobby, or to symbolize stability and being down to earth or some other meaning.

- The clown or the joker:

Many other people could use it to refer to their love for humor, could be a nickname, Emoji, profile picture, or anything else.

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- The logo of Hashashin cult:

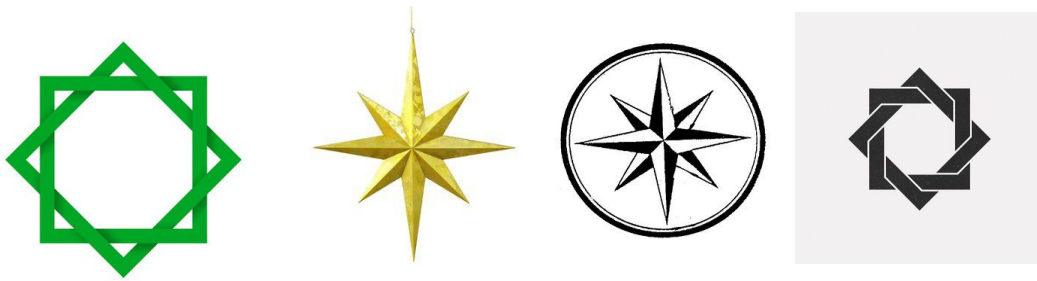

You will never see the logo with titles on it, so instead you are going to see this one:

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- The eight pointed star shapes:

These are the most common versions of Hashashin's logo, the last 2 pictures are from ancient Sumer in the middle east, the 2 others before them that almost look like the star of David are the most commonly used and resemble the disclosed Hashashin's logo the most.

- The Jewish star of David:

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- Infinity:

Some people could use this symbol to refer to immortality and eternal youth. Hashashin members who use this symbol tend to be of more recent middle-eastern background, and most likely refers to death (so-called life after death) since Abrahamic religions portray death as eternal life (Heaven and hell) and glorify it like the Necromangers from Riddick movies.

- Saturn:

Not exclusive to the Jews or Hashashin, some people might just use it to refer to their love for space and astronomy, when coupled with a crescent moon and nothing else it's a lot more likely to be used by a member of Hashashin. The symbol can be used as a tattoo, a profile picture, or even a nickname "Saturn".

- Afro haircut:

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- The circle (typically in the form of a necklace):

This symbol is not exclusive to Hashashin, as it would normally have good meanings, but when used by Hashashin, it's commonly used as a necklace or something like a dog collar (picture above), and from my observation, most of those who use it are extremely Jewish and from the so-called upper classes.

- The Devil's Horn:

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- The All Seeing Eye:

One of the most well known symbols used by Hashashin but attributed to Illuminati, many of those who use the symbol are intelligence agents for the country they are in or from, the symbol is used in many forms, ranging from hand signs to pictures that show only the eyes (or one eye) to the Illuminati symbol.

The symbol isn't exclusive to Hashashin or intelligence agents though, because it carries a number of meanings such as intelligence, knowledge, and watchfulness.

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- Roc hand Sign:

- The hidden hand sign:

This symbol seems to be mostly used by communists and Jews from the east such Karl Marx and Stalin, it also looks pretty odd like trying to grab a hidden gun or a concealed weapon so I don't think anyone outside Hashashin would use it.

The symbol most likely refers to hidden plans.

Some Of The Symbols Used By Hashashin:

- Freemasons logo:

Very rarely used by the so-called normal citizens, but can still be seen like in the screenshot above from the movie "The ant bully", the logo seems to imply their support for science and most notably mathematics, which I know is only a tool for them, not the objective.

Outer members of Hashashin in direct contact with inner:

These members of Hashashin are outers who are in contact with inner (full members who know everything):

Exceptions:

The only so-called exceptions I have ever seen, identified, and confirmed in the Armenoid race, are very few people who are not completely Armenoid, are mixed with Germanic blood even it seems non-existent, too stupid or just not evil enough to join the Jewish cult, and even then they still have issues mentally and particularly physically.

By exceptions I mean those who don't consciously try to harm or hold any harmful views to Europid people or white people knowingly or unknowingly, are not part of the Jewish cult or any of its branches, and demonstrate a certain degree of morality but not as an act or role-play.

In my entire life I have only known a few of these so-called exceptions, so they are extremely rare.

Based on these exceptions, some Armenoid people could theoretically not have their known behavioral issues, but even then they would still have the poor health of the Jews, their short life span, their genetic diseases, and their children may not only inherit these physical problems but will probably also manifest the bad behaviors and evil nature of their kind since birth, and they could pass on these diseases even if they don't have them.

Generally, all of the exceptions I managed to confirm among the Jewish race fall under the category of bots, and don't even know who or what they are, and don't know who or what their spouses are (since they are vessels, they are often sought after by more and sometimes less Jewish ones from the Jewish cult for seeding purposes).

Common misconceptions about the Jews:

1-Jews are short: Partly true, while it's true that many Jews are short, but many of them are also tall or even very tall, while many others are of average height, but it's true that being short is more common in the Jewish race than most races.

2-Jews control the world with money: while it's true that the Jews make use of money to control the world, money is hardly the main source of their power, Jews control the world primarily through force, the power of governments, law enforcement, the militaries of every country on earth, and their undercover agents throughout the populations, and couldn't possibly achieve their control otherwise.

The government has the ultimate control, it decides the value of money through a variety of means, it decides who can buy, produce, or sell anything, it puts restrictions and rules on how, what, and where you can produce or sell, it imposes taxes, it decides who can import anything and what can be imported, it decides the customs on imports, and it could even confiscate the wealth of the rich or richest whenever it desires and decide what to do with this wealth regardless of their own law or constitution, and could restrict or control farming and food production for certain crops or all crops and productive animals in urban and non-urban areas like in the United States or even worse, and much more.

The power governments possess is simply too much, almost unlimited.

3-Jews can't claim to hate the Jews: In reality some Jews do claim to hate the Jews and have done so historically (as a manipulation or baiting tactic) especially in the countries where the official media today still has celebrities who claim to hate the Jews (Such as in the middle east), in fact they could even claim to be Neo-Nazis, The Jews simply try to avoid referring to themselves as a race and claim to be just a religion to avoid being targeted by their own propaganda.

Conclusion:

Given the threat the Jewish race poses to the continuation of life on earth, the amount of power and the authority they possess, and how many they are I believe the only solution to the Jewish problem is to absolutely exterminate the entire Jewish race worldwide as quickly as possible by any means necessary.

That can't be done through military or traditional warfare, not now and not even 200 years ago, I think it can only be done using some kind of weapon of mass destruction, one that the world has never seen the likes of before, and that must be done without being noticed and without anyone knowing about it until it's too late to react.

Shadow warfare strategies could be helpful though, at least it could get in the way of their plans, cause infighting and discord among the Jews, or perhaps even force them to change their ways even if temporarily.

One of the ways to make such a weapon is to create a virus that kills everyone with a substantial amount of ape DNA (and make sure it kills all Armenoids and Orientalids too), everyone who has any genetic similarity to down syndrome, everyone with any of the Jewish diseases mentioned above.

Trying to target the Armenoid race and its racial relatives (Orientalid, Arabid, Alpinid, etc.) alone may be possible but difficult, unlikely to work perfectly, and would probably require a lab, as they are not a species like apes, they are a sub-species, plus the humanoid ape Jews may survive the use of such a weapon.

But it's important not to go too far with targeting ape DNA, because every human has at least a certain amount of it, so targeting everyone with any degree of similarity to apes would effectively wipe out all humans and humanoids alike, it should be just far enough to exterminate all members of the Armenoid race.

The weapon I just mentioned is just one of the ways to wipe out the Jews, and it may be extreme the way I presented it, but it's up to the world to decide what to do about the Jewish race and how to end them, because if action is not taken against the Jewish race quickly enough, soon there will be no such thing as life on earth.
